

REPORT

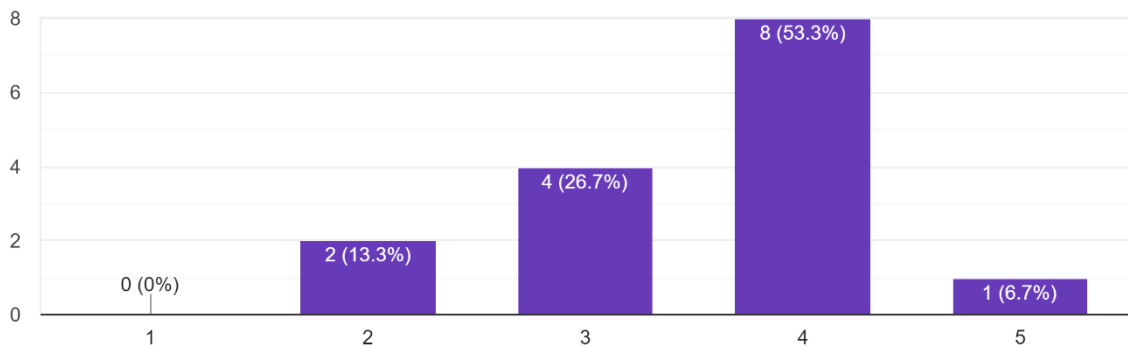

Educational Impact – Advocacy in Action

This is the summary of the participants’ self-assessment of DBYN’s training course “Advocacy in action: Safeguarding a peaceful and sustainable future”. This training course took place 02-06/09/2024 at the European Youth Centre in Strasbourg. This summary shows recorded the learning process of the individual participants, based on an online survey. The survey was carried out before the start and at the end of the training course.

Personal development process before and after

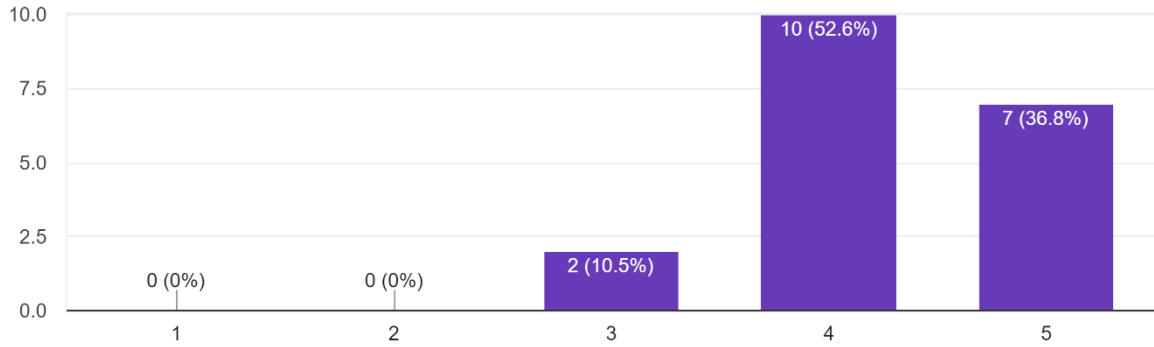

I know what the Don Bosco movement is all about

15 responses

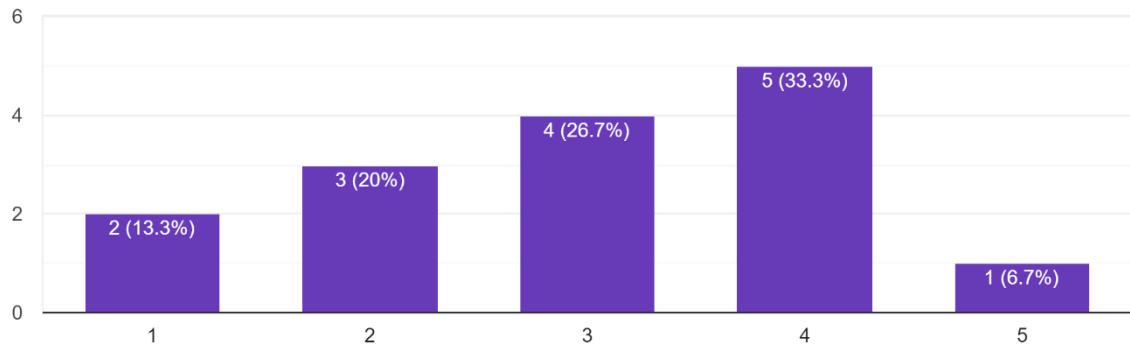

I know what the Don Bosco movement is all about

19 responses

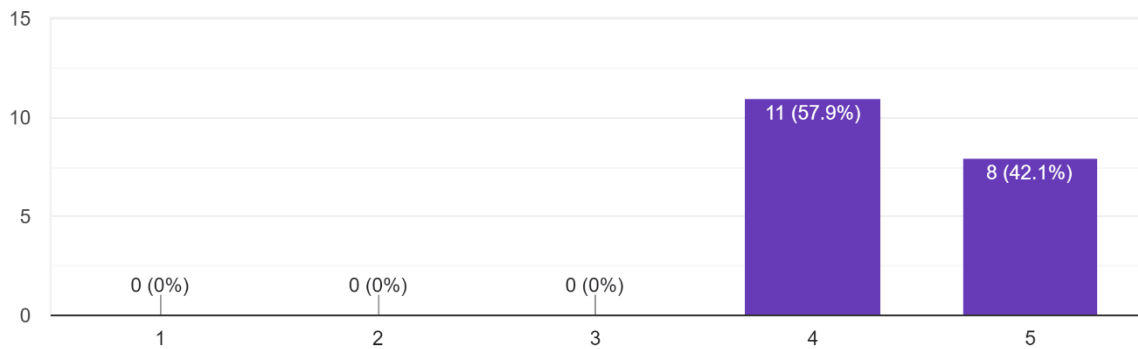

I am familiar with the Human Rights framework.

15 responses

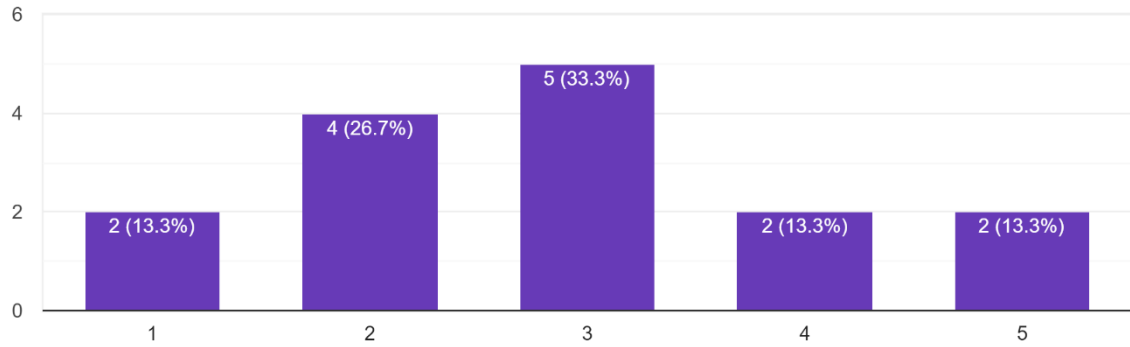

I am familiar with the Human Rights framework.

19 responses

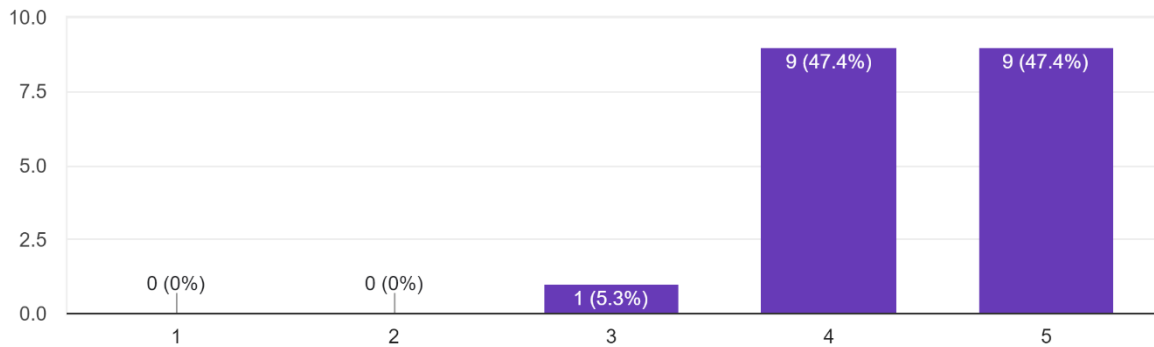

I know what advocacy is and how it works!

15 responses

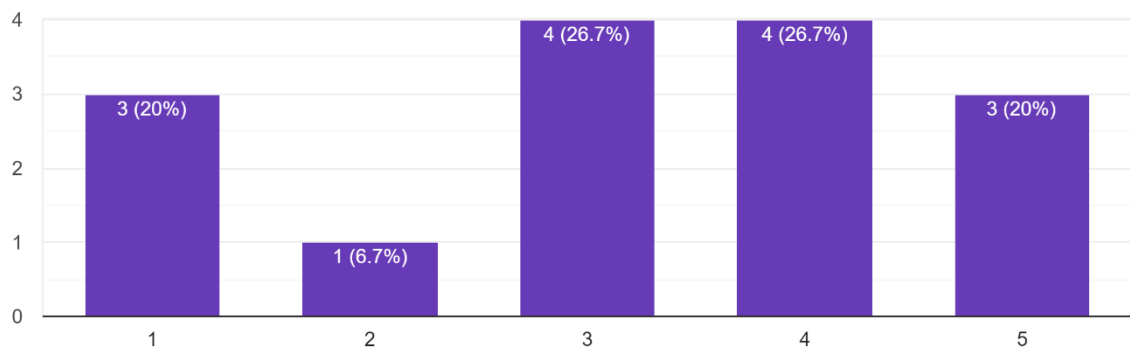

I know what advocacy is and how it works!

19 responses

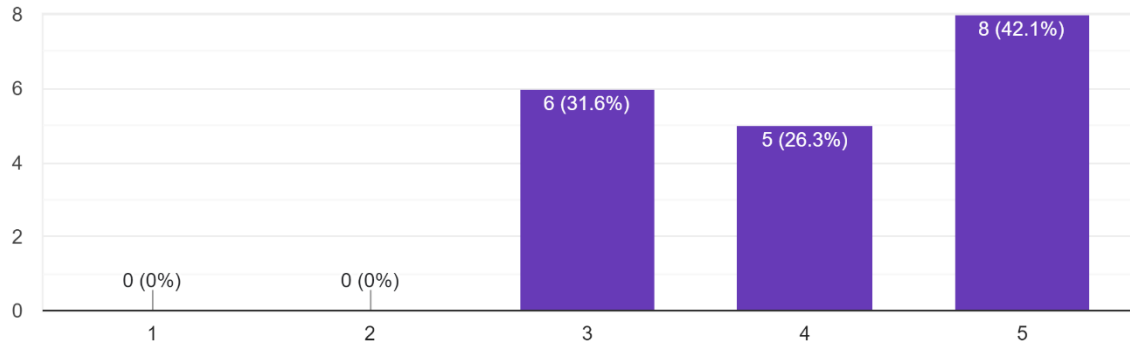

I know the difference between politics and policies!

15 responses

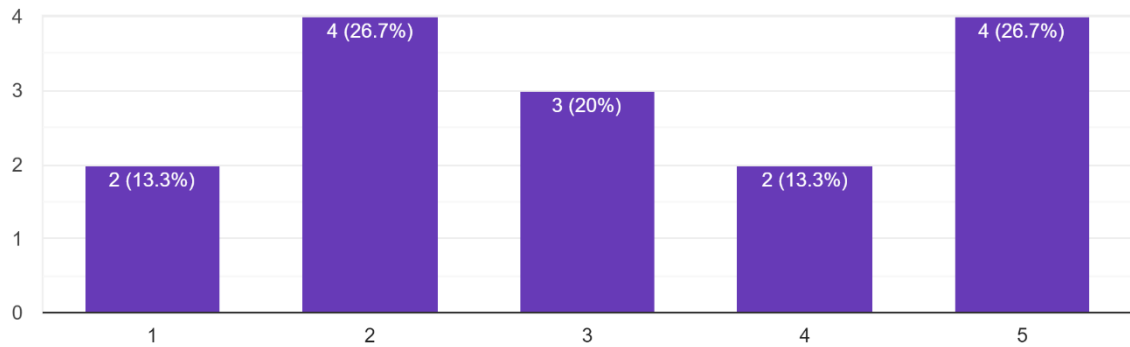

I know the difference between politics and policies!

19 responses

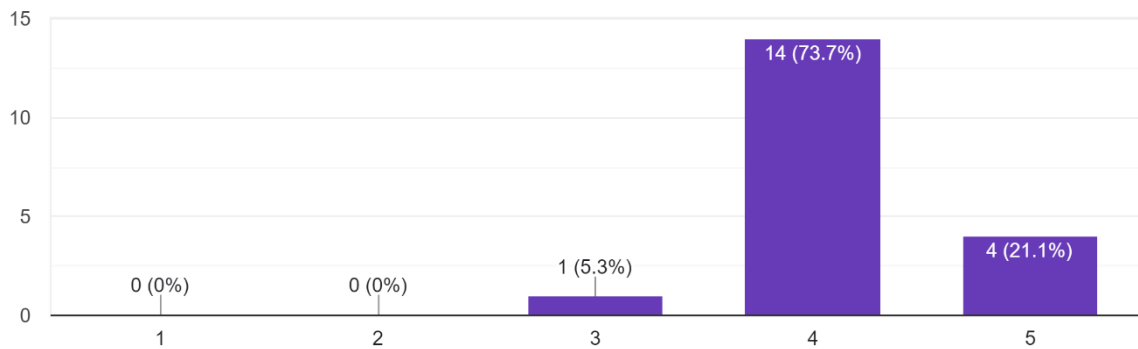

I know what DBYN is and what it is doing!

15 responses

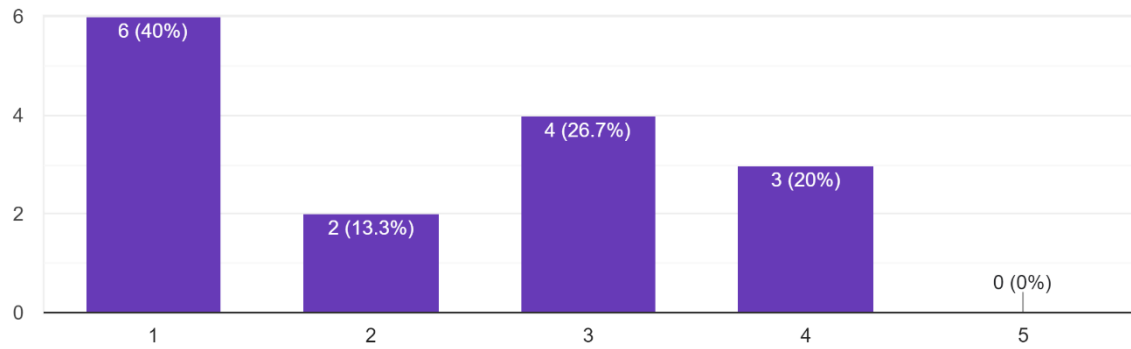

I know what DBYN is and what it is doing!

19 responses

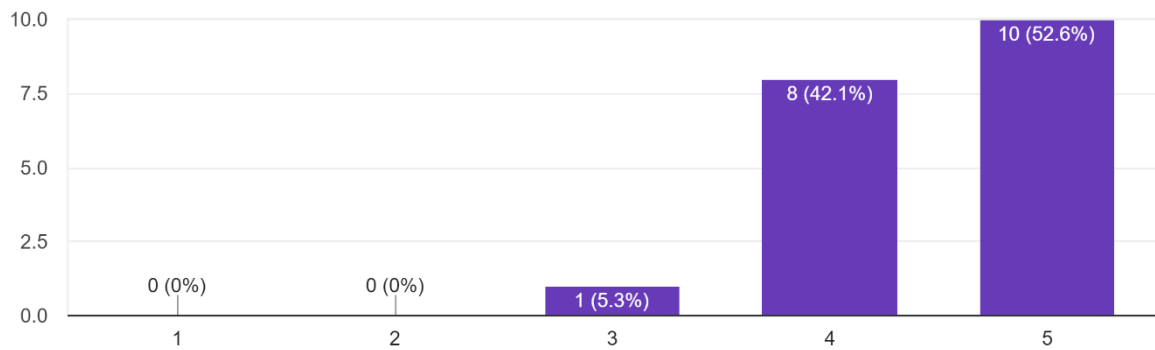

I know what the Council of Europe is and what it is doing in youth and education fields

15 responses

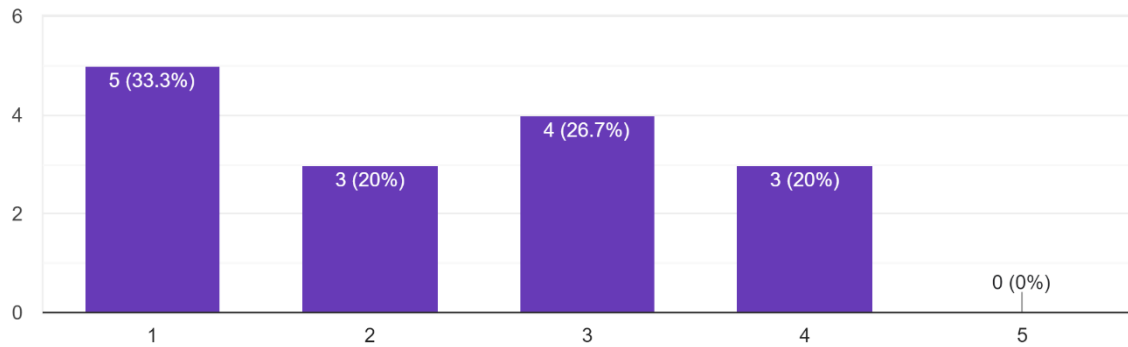

I know what the Council of Europe is and what it is doing in youth and education fields

19 responses

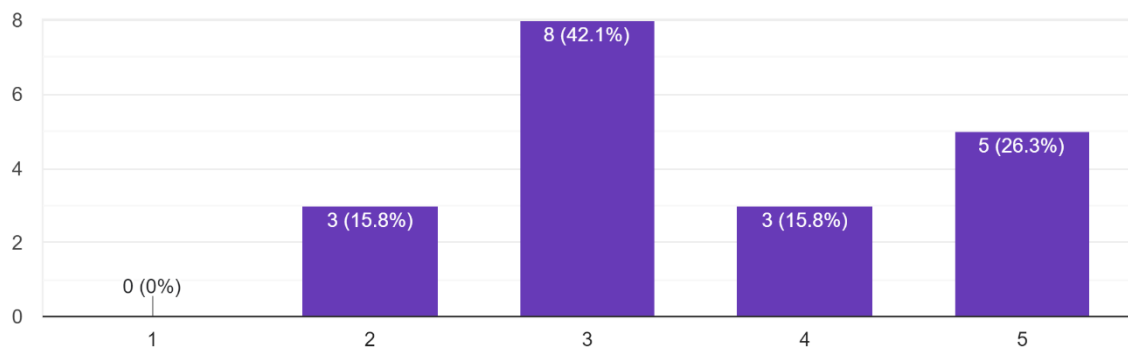

I know how advocacy and representation was done by Don Bosco in the past and how it is done now by Don Bosco organisations.

15 responses

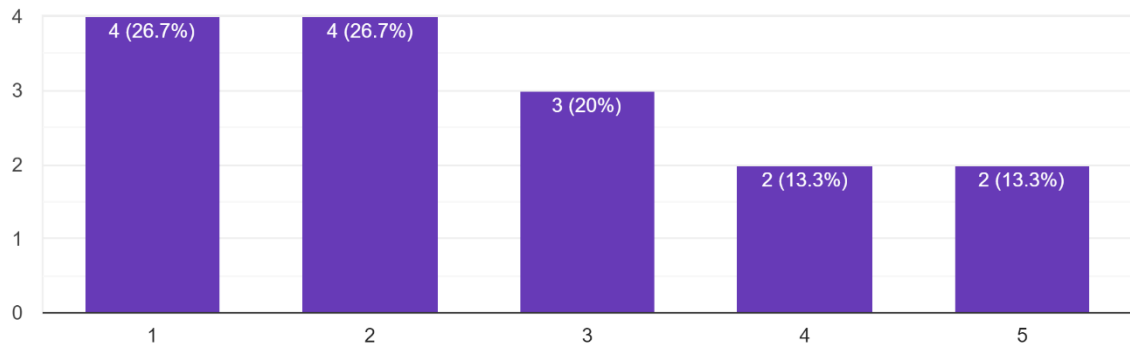

I know how advocacy and representation was done by Don Bosco in the past and how it is done now by Don Bosco organisations.

19 responses

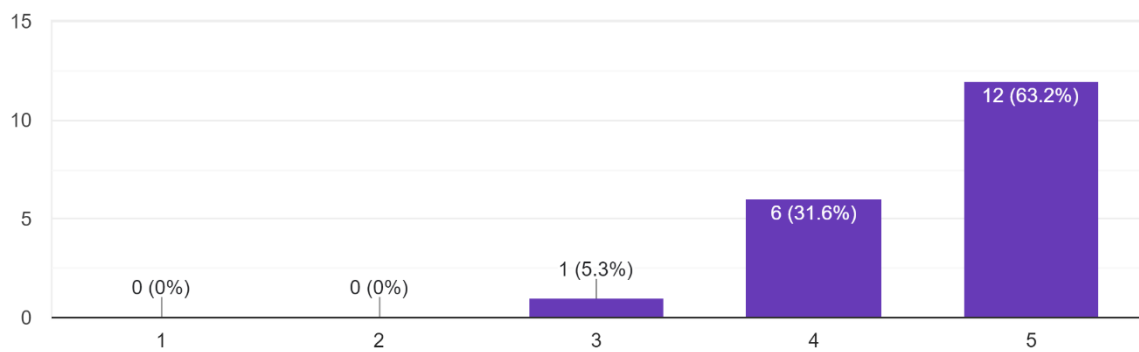

I know examples of advocacy campaigns done by others.

15 responses

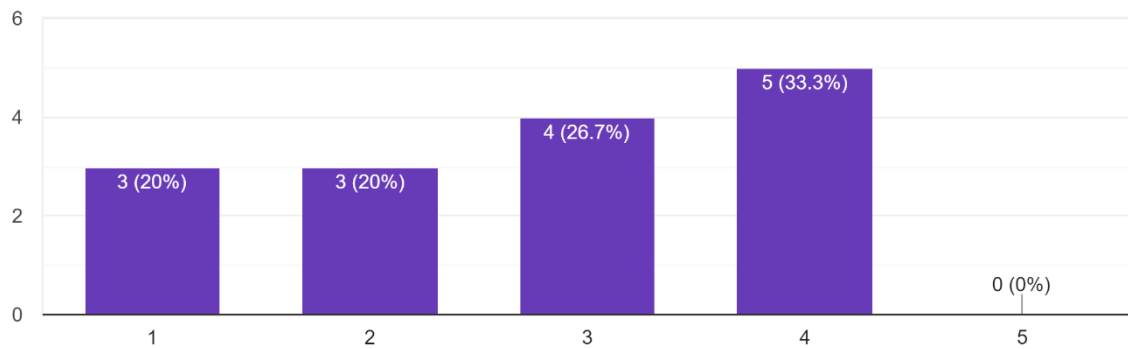

I know examples of advocacy campaigns done by others.

19 responses

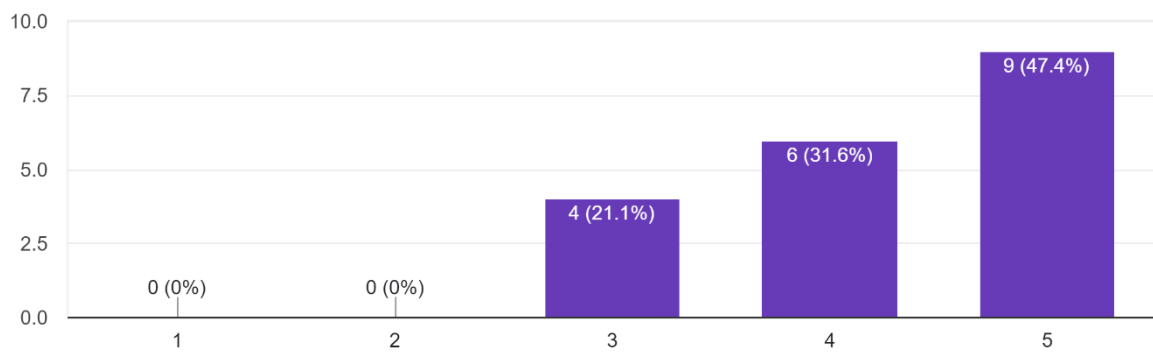

I can organise and run an advocacy campaign for an issue I care about.

15 responses

I can organise and run an advocacy campaign for an issue I care about.

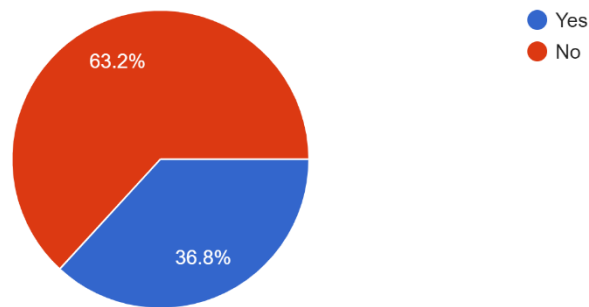

19 responses

Follow-up

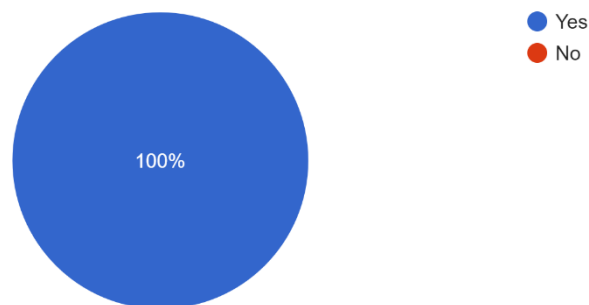

Before this training course, have you been active in youth advocacy?

19 responses

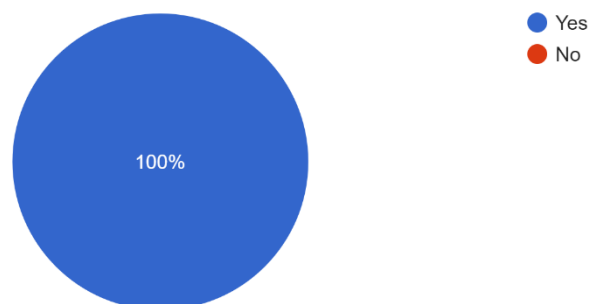

If no, are you considering to start being actively involved in youth advocacy after this training course in your youth organisation?

19 responses

If yes, do you think your advocacy actions will be stronger after this training course?

15 responses

Are you interested to become a youth representative for DBYN?

19 responses

